

Food Bank

Now we are back in Church for our services, we have started collecting for the Food Bank. Remember the collection place is in the cupboard at the back of church for you to put your donations of food or money in. The Foodbank warehouse currently very well stocked, but need the following Shampoo, Custard, Sponge Puddings, and Long-life Milk. The food bank would prefer their regular donors to avoid giving beans if possible as they always receive plenty of these from supermarket donations. Please note that we are unable to take baby milk formula, but we can take baby food in tins or jars.

Rev Karen Brady

Welcome to the Induction of Rev Karen Brady & Blessing of Vincent Whitehead

Induction is "the act, which is part of the Collation and Institution Service, whereby the archdeacon, on behalf of the bishop, puts the new incumbent into possession of - and gives the new incumbent responsibility for - the benefice and the church building". Karen's Induction today comes just over a year since her Licensing (by Zoom) on 10 June 2020. We welcome everyone to join in our celebration of Karen's first year as our Vicar at St Michael's, but equally to give thanks and bless Vincent who is a well-deserving recipient of Maundy Purse this year.

Refreshments after the service

Please join us for refreshments (and lots of cake) in the meeting room. Plates and serviettes are available on the way in and please take and KEEP HOLD OF your personal pair of bamboo tongs to select your food. If you need any assistance, please ask.

Your help is needed?

We need your help? Superdrug is donating money to Marie Curie Cancer Care. They are turning empty blister packs into money, so for every kilo donated they get they will donate £1. So all we want from you is, is to donate your empty medicine blister packs, so please bring them along with you and can put them in box which is situated at the back of church. So keep saving please.

Collects & Readings

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

2 Corinthians 5: 6-10, 14-17

⁶Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. ⁷For we live by faith, not by sight. ⁸We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. ⁹So we make it our goal to please him, whether we are at home in the body or away from it. ¹⁰For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each of us may receive what is due us for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad. ¹⁴For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. ¹⁵And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again. ¹⁶So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. ¹⁷Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!

Mark 4: 26-34

²⁶He also said, "This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man scatters seed on the ground. ²⁷Night and day, whether he sleeps or gets up, the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how. ²⁸All by itself the soil produces grain—first the stalk, then the head, then the full kernel in the head. ²⁹As soon as the grain is ripe, he puts the sickle to it, because the harvest has come." ³⁰Again he said, "What shall we say the kingdom of God is like, or what parable shall we use to describe it? ³¹It is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest of all seeds on earth. ³²Yet when planted, it grows and becomes the largest of all garden plants, with such big branches that the birds can perch in its shade." ³³With many similar parables Jesus spoke the word to them, as much as they could understand. ³⁴He did not say anything to them without using a parable. But when he was alone with his own disciples, he explained everything.

Post Communion

Loving Father, we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son: sustain us with your Spirit, that we may serve you here on earth until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord.

Favourite Hymns

We've had wonderful variety of hymns in our services in the past few weeks. But let us know your favourite hymns or worship songs that you'd like to hear. Please put your suggestions on the pink sheet at the back of church and we'll try to use them in future services. Thank you

Church Traditions of Holy Communion & the Liturgical Year

Have you ever wondered about our church traditions and practices around Holy Communion? Karen, Helen & Vincent will be leading an informal training session after the Holy Communion Service on Wednesday 23 June. This will be a chance to discuss the puzzling questions you've always pondered and to share valuable insights into how we set up for Communion and why we do things the way we do. If you'd like to know more and want to come along, please let Rosemary or Chris know, you'd be most welcome.

Easyfundraising

If you buy from companies like Boots, PC World, Amazon, Lakeland, to name but a few, please go to the Easyfundraising website and register. The website is <https://www.easyfundraising.org.uk/causesstmichaelallangelschurchruicorn/> All you need to do when you have registered is to go to the website and find the company you are buying from. That company will then donate a percentage back to St Michael's. If you have already registered and not used the site for a while please go through easyfundraising. If you want anymore information about this please see Brian Lunt or Colin Keam and they can explain the process.
